

FireWorks Master Class

- A trunk and curricula containing >40 hands-on activities for teaching about wildland fire science
- Covers physical science of combustion, fire history, succession, and fire effects on plants and animals
- New curriculum & streamlined materials
- Includes materials on fire use by Native Americans
- Lessons for elementary, middle, and high school levels

When?

Tues & Weds,
June 11-12, 2024
8 am - 4:30 pm

Where? Fire Sciences
Lab, Missoula, MT

It's free!!

MT OPI or UM Credit
Available for Teachers!

Interested? Contact

Court Johnson, courtney.johnson2@usda.gov, 406-329-4820

More information: www.frames.gov/fireworks

Produced by Forest Service, Rocky Mountain Research Station, Missoula Fire Sciences Lab